PHILADELPHIA POLICE ICE HOCKEY CLUB WINTER CLASSIC:

Philadelphia, PA, December 30, 2011: The Philadelphia Police Department Ice Hockey Club will be playing in a Winter Classic against the Boston Police Emerald Society hockey team under the lights at Citizens Bank Park. This-game will be a rematch from the Frozen Fenway Winter Classic game which took place earlier this year.

The Game will take place on Friday, December 30, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. Admission is free; however, a ticket is now required for admittance.

The Philadelphia Police Ice Hockey Club asks, to those who are attending, that a donation be made, which will be provided to the F.O.P. Police Survivor's Fund and The Police Foundation. Donations would be greatly appreciated, but are not required to attend the game. All donations can be made at Citizens Bank Park on the day of the event.

Shirt, hats and other items will also be available for purchase.
